LABORS BEGUN BY NEW GRAND JURY

THIRTEEN WOMEN AND SIX MEN
COMPRISE BODY OF COUNTY
INVESTIGATORS; JUDGE BUCK
SUGGESTS GAMBLING PROBE.

A new grand jury for San Mateo county was organized at the county seat Tuesday morning and began work immediately. Thirteen women and six men will act on the jury, one of the women, Mrs. Annie M. Cunningham, wife of F. A. Cunningham, trustee of South San Francisco, being from this city. Thomas T. Wiseman, building contractor of San Mateo, was appointed foreman by Judge G. H. Buck. No special line of investigation was suggested by Judge Buck in his instructions to the jurymen, aside from calling their attention to the alleged gambling in the north end of the county.

After leaving the courtroom, the investigators met in the supervisors' chambers and elected L. A. Keith of Burlingame secretary. A visit was then made to the detention home and the county jail.

The personnel of the new grand jury is as follows:

Daly City—Louise Kendall, Florence Stockton, Josephine T. Johnson.

Colma—Bertha M. Grady.

South San Francisco—Annie M. Cunningham.

Burlingame—L. A. Keith, Mary C. Barrington, L. B. Sibley.

San Mateo—Annie E. Pattison, Annie G. Wiggersen, Thomas T. Wiseman.

Belmont—Eugene O'Neill.

Redwood City—Tessie Jones, Mary McC. Felton, Mary E. Winter.

Menlo Park—Nellie M. O'Keefe, Nettie I. Reynolds.

Montara—J. L. Kent.

Halfmoon Bay—A. F. Joseph.

MILLER ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE

Richard Miller, shipyard worker, who shot and killed his next door neighbor at Daly City August 25th last, was acquitted by a jury in Judge George H. Buck's court last Friday afternoon. Self defense was the plea made by Miller at the trial to justify him for taking the life of Bryan, the shooting taking place following a quarrel between the two men, during which, it was alleged by the defendant, who is only 5 feet tall and weighs about 120 pounds, that Bryan, twice his size, attacked him.

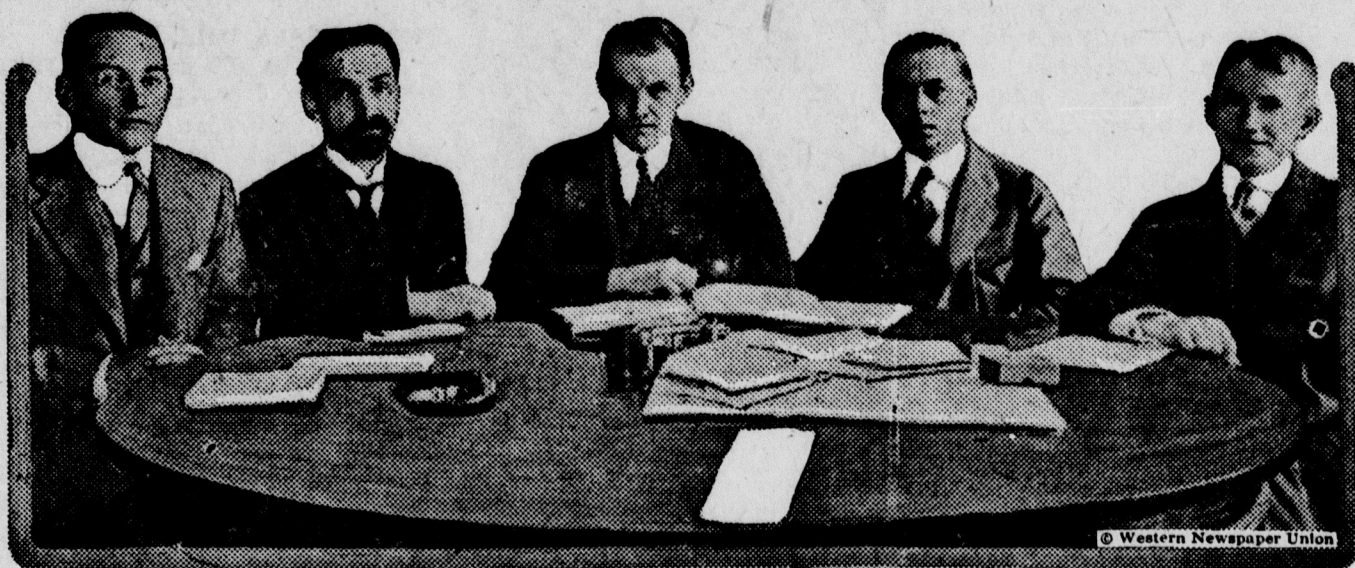

Mrs. Miller, over whom the shooting occurred, took the stand in defense of her husband, and told of her undue intimacy with Bryan. The latter leaves a blind widow, who testified on the stand that she was unaware of any infidelity on the part of her husband.

When the jury, which was composed of twelve men, brought in its verdict of not guilty, after twelve minutes deliberation, the relatives and friends of the defendant began to applaud loudly in the courtroom and had to be called to order by Judge Buck.

FOUR DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Two Prominent Men With Their Wives
Killed When Car Plunges Down
Side of Pedro Mountain.

In a spectacular automobile accident that happened on the Halfmoon Bay road Sunday afternoon and was witnessed by many passing motorists, Charles M. Belshaw of San Francisco, one of the best-known politicians and capitalists of the state; his wife, Mrs. Maude Spencer Belshaw; J. D. Sherwood of Spokane and his wife, Mrs. J. D. Sherwood, were killed Sunday afternoon. It is believed that Belshaw's machine struck another car in passing, causing it to swerve from the road and go plunging down to the foot of Pedro Mountain, 700 feet below, turning over and over in its descent. Mrs. Belshaw and Mrs. Sherwood were dead when horrified spectators reached the overturned car, Belshaw died on the way to a San Francisco hospital, while Sherwood, who was rushed to the South San Francisco Hospital in a car that was at the scene of the accident, died at about 7 o'clock in the evening.

Belshaw had large property interests in San Francisco and central California, but was known chiefly for his political activities, having served in both houses of the California legislature and having been Hiram Johnson's opponent for the nomination as candidate for governor of the state in 1914.

Sherwood was a capitalist of Spokane, Wash.

Both families were staying at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco.

MANY CITED FOR KILLING SMALL BIRDS

Game Warden Jack Burke has his hands full these days looking after violators of the section of the game laws relating to protected birds. Burke made a visit to the city hall Tuesday morning, and as a result seven young men have been cited to appear in Judge Smith's court. All the arrests were made last Sunday.

Pietra Bachigalupi was killing killedeer and also had no license. He put up $25 bail. R. Bellini and Louis W. Santini were killing small song birds, some thirty or forty of which Burke took from them and produced as evidence. Frank Tait, C. E. Shell, James Dixon and J. L. Witzel were cited for killing "shore birds." Antonio Feradio was cited to appear for hunting rabbits without a hunting license.

BOY SLAYERS GET FIRST HEARING

LISTEN COOLLY TO THE STORY OF THEIR CRIME AS TOLD BY POLICE OFFICER; SEEM CARE-LESS AS TO FATE.

Handcuffed securely together, the cynosure for the eyes of the throng that crowded the courtroom, Gordon Tescher, Lawrence McCarthy, and John Helm, the three youths who have confessed to the murder of M. J. Needham on the highway at Baden October 31st, heard the story of their crime and confession told in court in this city Monday, and said nothing in their own defense. The three eyed curiously the witnesses who testified, but they gave no sign of nervousness or depression. Even when Lieutenant Goff of the San Francisco police department repeated in graphic language the story as they had told it to him of how they walked down the street in San Francisco, picked out the car they decided to steal, then planned the affair deliberately, bought the hammer with which to strike the driver, the chloroform with which to stupefy him, and the cord with which to bind him, the three youths displayed no feeling, no realization of their position in the shadow of the gallows, no remorse for their terrible deed. And just as stoically they received the judge's statement that they would be held for trial without bail in the superior court for the crime of murder.

The fathers of McCarthy and Tescher were in court, having come from their homes in Indiana to be near their sons. Mrs. Needham, widow of the murdered man, a frail-looking little woman in deepest mourning and accompanied by her two small children, was also present, as well as Attorney S. Christensen of San Francisco, who will represent the boys during their trial.

Large Crowd Assembles

Two hours before the prisoners arrived from Redwood City in charge of Sheriff Sheehan the justice's courtroom on Linden avenue was packed to its capacity and a large crowd had assembled in the street outside. The spectators were curious only, however. The statement that had appeared in several newspapers to the effect that the sheriff rushed his prisoners through the crowd in fear

DAMAGE HEAVY FROM WIND STORM

VIOLENT GALE SWEEPS ENTIRE STATE; IS ACCOMPANIED BY
LOW TEMPERATURE; SNOWFALL
THROUGHOUT SOUTHERN CALIF.

The weather bureau declares that the wind which swept the entire coast Thanksgiving Day was the worst blow in this region since November, 1906. At times the gale registered a 62-mile velocity. No lives have yet been reported lost, but much damage has been done to trees, buildings, telephone poles, etc.

From reports that are reaching the city from all over the state it would seem that South San Francisco escaped lightly. In this city very little damage was done beyond a sign or two blown down and a few board fences laid flat. In San Francisco, windows in every section of the city were broken, signs ripped off, auto tops torn away and light structures damaged. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company report many of its poles blown down in the Mission and Sunset districts. In Golden Gate Park and Suto Forest many trees and shrubs were uprooted.

Because of the cold which necessitated fires, blowing sparks caused many fires, 145 alarms being turned in to the San Francisco fire department between midnight Wednesday and 4:45 Thursday afternoon. Serious damage resulted from several. Berkeley and San Rafael were each threatened by grass fires fanned by the gale.

At Burlingame the S. de Journal home, occupied by N. E. Carroll, was destroyed with a loss of about $6000.

At Tiburon and Sausalito, $50,000 damage was done to pleasure craft when they snapped their moorings and went adrift.

In the southern part of the state wind did much damage to the orange crop, and the cold resulted in a snowfall in many places where it is usually unknown. There was a very noticeable fall in Los Angeles, the mountains around Pasadena are blanketed in white, while in the mountains of San Diego county the snowfall was the heaviest ever recorded.

WORK STARTS AT LOCAL SHIP PLANT

Work began again at the Schaw-Batcher shipyards in this city Monday morning. The superintendent's office at the yards stated this morning early that by Wednesday night 500 men were at work and that the yard activities were progressing along the regular lines as far as this crew was able to handle them. It was stated, also, that the shipyard owners were confident that more men would be at work shortly.

The shipyard owners asked the trustees of this city to pass an anti-picketing ordinance, but on investigation it developed that it would take over a month to have such an ordinance passed, and, as the emergency called for quicker action, the owners have appealed to the county superior court for an injunction against picketers. It is expected that a reply to their application will be received within a day or two.

There are a considerable number of pickets from among the striking union men on duty at the gates every morning.

CITY TAX MONEY IS COMING IN RAPIDLY

As the time for paying city taxes before delinquency draws toward its close, the money flowing into the city clerk's office is increasing in volume. Monday of this week over $10,000 in tax money went into the city treasury.

BOY SLAYERS.

of violence had no foundation in fact. There was no whisper of drastic action heard, and after the hearing the prisoners sat in the car at the curb for ten minutes before the machine moved away.

The Hearing

Dr. F. H. Smith of San Bruno, who performed an autopsy on Needham's body; Coroner W. A. Brooke, who presided at the inquest, and Lieutenant Goff, who with Sheriff Sheehan brought the boys back from Ogden after their capture and to whom they confessed, were the witnesses, together with Mrs. Needham, who testified as to her husband's ownership of the buff-colored Marmon car the three took from him.

The Confession

The spectators listened with bated breath while the San Francisco officer repeated the story the boys had told him. Its main points follow: Tescher and McCarthy came from Indiana this summer and began working in the oilfields near Bakersfield. Here they met Helm, who was working with a party of surveyors. The two eastern lads were homesick and told Helm so, whereupon that youth, who, though the youngest of the trio was the moving spirit through the whole affair, unfolded a scheme for the three to come to San Francisco, with which city he was well acquainted, steal a car and drive east.

Arrived in San Francisco, they took in the sights for a day or two. Then walking down Market street they saw Needham's fine new Marmon car and decided it was the machine they wanted. They approached the driver and arranged for him to drive them to San Mateo. Their plans were laid coolly, deliberately. Helm traded a small-caliber revolver at a pawnshop for a larger one. At a drug store they purchased 50 cents' worth of chloroform. McCarthy suggested they buy a "blackjack" to stun their victim, but they could not find one so purchased a small hammer for the purpose, then a ball of heavy cord to tie him.

They debated as to how to get Needham to stop the car. One suggested saying he had a flat tire, but they agreed he was too "wise" to be deceived that way, so they decided to have a cap fly off and ask him to stop for it.

It all worked out as planned. Helm sat on the front seat. Arrived at the lonely spot near Baden where a willow swamp borders the road, a cap was thrown overboard and Needham stopped, whereupon Helm struck the unsuspecting man with the hammer. Then all three closed upon him. The driver put up a game fight against great odds. Once during the struggle he seized Helm by the throat, and had it not been for the other two youths Helm would have been quickly overpowered. As it was, he still bears the marks on his throat. The other two holding chloroform to Needham's face was all that saved Helm. As they were tying Needham, he said "Boys, take what I have and let me go," and again, "Boys, don't do that," but they gagged him, applied more chloroform, tied him hand and foot, dragged his body into the bushes, and drove away.

After the fight, according to the story the boys told, they drove to Golden Gate Park, where they washed the blood from their clothing, then drove across the bay on the ferry. At a gas station in Oakland the suspicions of the attendant were aroused as they did not know where the gas tank was. Driving east, the three reached Windmere, Nev., where, engine trouble developing in the car, they traded it for another, later selling the second for $250. They were trailed to Ogden, Utah, and there captured.

Lieutenant Goff's recital was interrupted twice by Attorney Christensen, who asked once if Helm had told him his true age was 17 instead of 18; the other time if the boys had told him Tescher and McCarthy had never been in a large city before coming to San Francisco. Goff answered in the affirmative to both questions.

It is believed the young murderers' attorney will base his defense upon their youth and upon Dr. Smith's testimony that the actual cause of Needham's death was strangulation from the gag which lodged in his throat probably after the boys had left, and not from the chloroform or blows of the hammer.

OWNS AREA ALMOST AS LARGE AS CALIF.

W. H. Coffinberry, president of the Bank of South San Francisco, returned recently from the southern part of the state where he went as the host of Sidney Kidman of Australia, cattle king of the world. Mr. Kidman and his party, consisting of Mrs. Kidman and their son, Walter, a youth of about 18 years, were in and around San Francisco for several weeks, visiting in South San Francisco several times. Mr. Coffinberry took the party in charge and drove them over 2500 miles through the central and southern parts of the state. In Los Angeles they were met by Louis F. Swift of Chicago, who entertained them at his winter home in Santa Barbara. After the departure of the Kidman party for Eastern points, Mr. Coffinberry was the guest of Mr. Swift for several days.

In commenting on the tremendous cattle and livestock business owned by Mr. Kidman, Mr. Coffinberry quotes some amazing figures. Mr. Kidman owns and controls in Australia an area that lacks only a few thousand square miles of being as large as the state of California. He owns over 600,000 head of cattle and 400,000 head of sheep, and several hundred thousand head of horses. He also owns many camels, which are used for transportation. Mr. Kidman was much interested in the farm equipment in use in California, and also in the high development here of motor transportation. He declared that on his return to Australia he intended using trucks wherever possible instead of camels. He also stated that in his travels over the world he had never seen such fine boulevards as he found in California.

ITALY HONORS GEN. TREAT

Brig. Gen. Charles G. Treat, who commanded the American forces in Italy during the war, was awarded a decoration by the king of Italy. Prince Montevale is here seen pinning the medal on the breast of the general.

Doubtless True.

A friend of ours whose books of verse have been listed with the "best sellers" recently received a jolt that might have discouraged some writers.

Having some curiosity to see how this latest production was being received he went into a department store and inquired of the sales girl:

"Have you Twanglyre's new book of poetry?"

"No," the girl replied, "but we have lots of others just as good."

We'll Bet She Did.

They were seeing San Francisco. They had done Chinatown, the seals, a couple of museums and the spaghetti tunnel in Bay street. The evening found them in Peacock alley watching the Frangipani parade. Finally one of them had an inspiration. She turned to her companion.

"Do you like art?" she queried.

"Oh, law, yes. Whenever I hit a big city with an artery in it I always blow in."

Yes, labor and capital will one day join hands—when the government glues them together.

The agitator should take warning. The American foot is slow to move, but it hits with a terrific jolt.

An enumeration of the mines and quarries of the United States was made for the first time in 1840.

NEXT YEAR'S AUTO LICENSE WILL BE DUE FEBRUARY 1ST

Among the amendments which the California Legislature has made to the motor vehicle act was included a change in the time for renewing licenses. Formerly the fee was due January 1st, but under the new law the fee does not become due until February 1st. It was found advisable to set the license period ahead one month to avoid the congested conditions of the mails around the Christmas holiday season, which in the past has resulted in delay.

Motorists should take note that their automobile licenses for the year 1920 are due February 1st and become delinquent after March 1st.

NEW CENSUS WILL GET DATA ON MANY SUBJECTS

Washington.—That the fourteenth decennial census, on which the actual enumeration work will begin January 2, 1920, is to be the most important ever taken, is shown by the fact that the act of Congress providing for this census expressly increased the scope of the inquiries, so as to include forestry and forest products, two subjects never covered specifically by any preceding census act.

The inquiries to be made relating to population, manufactures, mines, quarries, and agriculture were also extended in their scope by Congress, the keenest interest over the forthcoming census having been shown by the members of the census committees of both the House and Senate while the law was under considera-

IF WE ONLY UNDERSTOOD.

Could we but draw back the curtains
That surround each other's lives,
See the naked heart and spirit,
Know what spur the action gives,
Often we would find it better,
Purer than we judge we should;
We should love each other better
If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives,
See the good and bad within,
Often we would love the sinner
All the while we loathe the sin,
Could we know the powers working
To overthrow integrity,
We should judge each other's errors
With more patient charity.

If we knew the cares and trials,
Knew the efforts all in vain,
And the bitter disappointments,
Understood the loss and gain—
Would the grim external roughness
Seem, I wonder, just the same?
Should we help where we now hinder?
Should we pity where we blame?

Ah, we judge each other harshly,
Knowing not life's hidden force;
Knowing not the fount of action
Is less turbid at its source.
Seeing not amid the evil
All the golden grains of good;
Oh! we'd love each other better
If we only understood.

INSTEAD OF RENTING

Start this month—save your rent money—and make it return you something more tangible than a bunch of rent receipts. The same you NOW PAY OUT each month for the privilege of living in a home somebody else owns will buy a cozy bungalow, and in a few years give you the deed to a valuable piece of real estate.

Which is better off—the man with a deed worth three or four thousand dollars, or the man with a bunch of paper rent receipts?

Useful Christmas Gifts That Any Boy Can Make

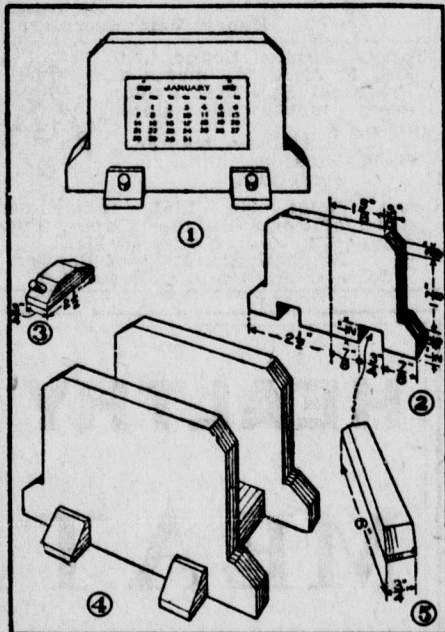

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

It requires no more time to make a useful gift than one which will be of no practical value, so why not decide, before beginning this season's gifts, what will be appropriate for those whom you wish to remember?

Calendar-Board and Pen-Rack.

Of the smaller gifts, nothing would be better appreciated than this article for one's desk. Fig. 2 shows a pattern for the board. If you haven't hardwood, go to a carpenter. He will let you pick a scrap from his waste pile, or will sell you a piece for a few cents. Wood three-eighths-inch thick is just right. Both sides must be cut alike, and the surest way to get them so is to draw a center-line, first, then lay off the measurements each side of this. The notches in the bottom edge receive the base blocks (Fig. 3). Bore a small hole in the beveled portion of one end of each base block, glue a peg in it to form the front of the pen-rack, and fasten the blocks in the notches cut for them.

Sandpaper all surfaces, then apply some wood stain and wax. A small calendar-pad tacked to the center of the board, and felt glued to the underside of the base blocks, will complete the gift.

Postcard Rack.

The same pattern that was used for the calendar-board (Fig. 2) is required for the ends of the postcard-rack in Fig. 4, and Fig. 5 shows a pattern for the base strips, which fasten in the notches in the bottom of the end pieces. Finish the wood with stain and wax.

Book-Rack.

The book-rack in the illustration is made of wood five-eighths inch thick.

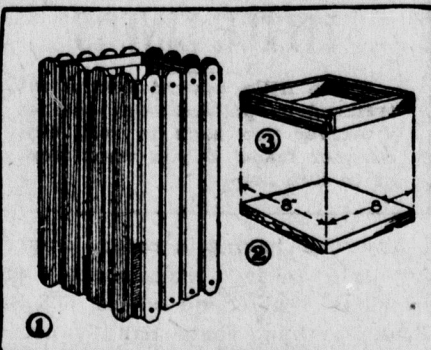

First, prepare the base board by the pattern of Fig. 2, then the pair of ends by the pattern of Fig. 3, then two pairs of brackets like the one in Fig. 4. These seven pieces are all that the rack requires. Be careful to get the sides of the end pieces symmetrical. Bevel the edges of the base-board.

Use round-headed blued screws for assembling the parts, and place these in the positions indicated in Fig. 1. A coat of stain, then one of wax, and a button of felt glued to the underside of the base at each corner, will complete the bookrack.

Waste-Basket.

An 8 by 8 inch board, for a base (Fig. 2), four strips out of which to make a frame of the same size as the baseboard (Fig. 3), eight laths to cut in half for side strips, a few finishing nails, and 32 round-head blued screws, are all that you need for the pretty waste-basket shown in Fig. 1. Plane the laths smooth, trim off their ends and bore holes a trifle larger than the screws, near the ends. Screw the side strips to the base edges, four to a side, then prepare the top frame of the form shown in Fig. 3, and screw the upper ends of the strips to it.

Wood stain and wax, or two coats of paint or white enamel may be applied, to finish the woodwork.

Pretty Christmas Gifts That Any Girl Can Make

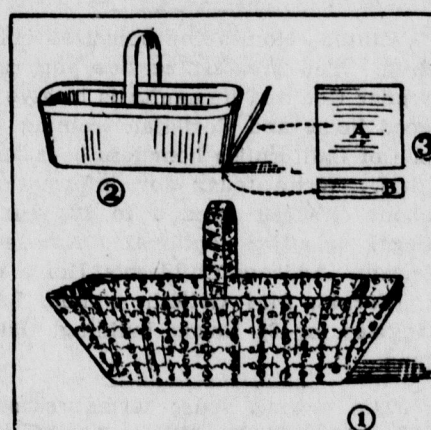

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

Most of the material required for the gifts in the illustrations can be picked up at home, which will be appreciated by every girl who has many to remember at Christmas time and small means to procure gifts with. Besides, these gifts are quickly made.

A Fancywork Basket.

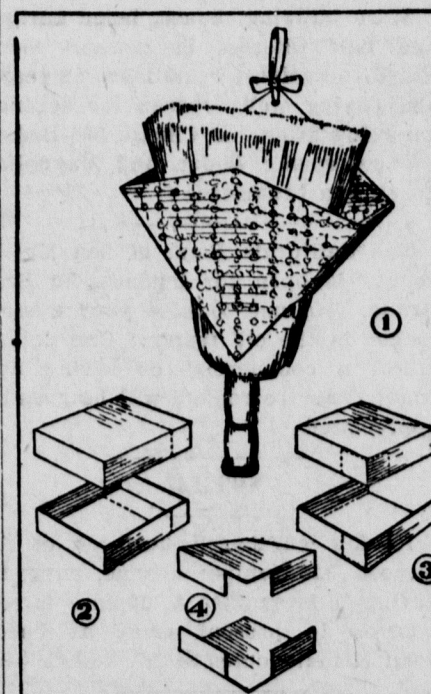

You will not make a mistake in providing a handy workbasket like that in Fig. 1, for mother. Its end pockets for needles, thread, scissors and other small articles, are constructed outside of the basket, which leaves the entire inside space for work. A grape-basket, or any basket of about its size, may be used. Figure 2 shows the start of an end pocket. Cut a piece of cardboard of the shape of A (Fig. 3), and hinge it to the basket bottom by means of strip B. With both pockets started, cover the basket with cretonne, running it around the cardboard ends to form sides to the pockets (Fig. 1). Conceal the handle by wrapping a strip of cretonne around it.

A Whisk-Broom Holder.

Either a man or woman will appreciate this convenient article. A stationery box forms its foundation.

Such a box usually has the proportions shown in Fig. 2. The first thing to do is to remove one end, and enough of the top, bottom and sides, to make the box square. The dotted line in Fig. 2 shows where to cut. The second step is to remove a side adjoining that just removed, cut away the top to the shape of the finished front, and cut away one corner to form the open bottom of the rack. This cutting is shown by dotted lines in Fig. 3, and Fig. 4 shows the pieces thus prepared. Sew together what remains of the box and cover, then conceal the surfaces with cretonne and fasten a small bow and loop of ribbon through a hole punched through the upper corner of the back, for a hanger.

A Twine Holder.

This unique holder may be used for either crochet-cotton or twine. It requires the head of a small doll (Fig. 2), and a small "cat" basket (Fig. 3). The doll's head must be fastened to the basket in such a way that it can be removed easily for putting a new ball inside of the basket, so the best method of attaching it is with bands of ribbon, passing these around the doll's neck and shoulders, and around the basket, and tying the ends in bows. Cut a strip of pretty colored silk of the proportions shown in Fig. 4, run a thread through a hem made in one edge, for a gathering string, and by means of this thread gather the silk about the doll's head to form a ruffe and sleeves. Add a neck ribbon. Figure 1 shows how the twine or crochet cotton is pulled out through one of the sleeve openings.

Games for Children at Christmas Time

By A. NEELY HALL

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

It may be for a Christmas party, or for the family gathering, that you will need ideas; for either, the following games will furnish fun for young and old alike.

The Game of Tip.

This old English game requires the use of enough assorted Christmas candies, nuts, raisins, and other dainties, to make a small pile upon a table; also a pair of sugar tongs. One of the party is chosen, who must retire to another room while the remaining players decide upon one of the dainties in the pile to be known as "Tip." The chosen person is then recalled, and with the tongs removes pieces from the pile, trying to avoid the piece named Tip, of which, however, he does not know the location. All pieces removed belong to him, unless he removes Tip, when all must be returned to the pile, and the turn passes to the next player, who retires to the other room while another Tip is named. A player may pass his turn when, after drawing several pieces, he wants to avoid the possibility of losing them through drawing Tip. The game continues until the pile disappears.

A Fill-in Game.

For a laughter producer this game has no peer. A poem is selected and copied upon paper, with each noun omitted and a line drawn in its place. Then the nouns are copied upon small cards, one upon each. The cards are dealt, an equal number to each player, and a player is chosen as reader. The reader reads the poem, pausing at each space, and the players fill in, in turn, a noun from the cards in their pile. The nouns will seldom come in their original places, and the result will be a ridiculous mix-up.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES HOUSE DREAM GHOSTS

Receptacles Crammed With Fake Securities Representing Wasted Millions.

Washington—If the safety deposit boxes of the United States could give up their dead stores of fake securities, enough wasted money would be disclosed to stagger the imagination. If a man expects his financial barrel to fill up, he has got to stop up the leaks in it. This is the keynote of a message sent by William Mather Lewis, director of the savings division of the Treasury Department, to the Twelfth District savings directors urging them to impress the wisdom of holding government securities.

"Thousands of people in the United States are losing their hard-earned savings every day because they lack knowledge of financial dealing," continued Mr. Lewis. Untold numbers of fake scheme promoters and regiments of investment sharks, because of this popular ignorance, are pointing out short roads to big fortunes to those whose Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps they hope to secure in exchange for beautifully embossed but absolutely worthless stock certificates. These fakers know the value of government securities. They are anxious to get them, for they figure that they will soon be selling at par and above. "They know that following the Civil War the war issues of government securities soon were above par, and that there is no well-informed person today who does not believe that the Liberty Bonds will sell well above par, long before their maturity."

"But their victims do not know these facts, and so they trade the best securities in the world for some wild-cat that promises a high rate of interest. What their chances are of getting stung is illustrated by the fact that in Georgia out of 300 applications from a certain type of company to sell stock in that state, only two have been able to meet the requirements under the blue-sky law and were given permits."

"The other 298 are probably operating somewhere where the going is better. If the American people would give to the matter of spending and investment money 10 per cent of the thought they devote to making it, the high cost of living would be greatly decreased. Reckless spending and foolish investment are elements in the present situation which can only be remedied by the rank and file of our people."

"As long as easy money is in evidence, the profiteer and the shark will prosper."

Incidentally, this paper is always glad to receive and publish letters on subjects of general interest if the letters are signed.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.

Year by year the custom of sending cards of Christmas greeting to friends is growing. Such a token entails little of the expense that in many cases makes Christmas giving a burden. Such cards with the giver's name printed on them have an air and character that expensive gifts often lack. They show kindly thought on the donor's part that is always appreciated. It is a pleasant, sensible custom that The Enterprise believes should be encouraged. This office will embody your own ideas in such a card. Come and talk it over with us.

ENTERPRISE TO COME OUT EARLIER.

Don't be surprised next week if you get your Enterprise Friday afternoon instead of Saturday morning. Beginning with next week's issue this paper will come from the press in time to be distributed in Friday afternoon's local mail delivery. The Enterprise believes this will prove a very advantageous change for both advertisers and readers. It will give the advertisers who offer special inducements to Saturday shoppers the opportunity to get their announcements before the buying public the evening before; it will give our readers the news of this city and county hot off the press within a few hours after it is written.

This is in direct line with the policy of this paper to give both advertisers and readers the best service possible.

THE HIGH COST OF DELINQUENTS.

We hear much these days of the high cost of living. We hear, and we roar. But who, except the publisher, ever thinks of the high cost of delinquent subscribers? Certainly not the delinquent.

Unfortunately we have a few on our books. We readily concede they are good citizens, honorable and highly respected, and well meaning in the main. They just simply don't pay. Because it is a small matter they imagine it is of no consequence.

But we think otherwise.

Everything we use in the making of a newspaper is sky high in price and still climbing. We pay the bills, and we pay in cash. The wholesale houses maintain no delinquent list.

But the delinquent subscriber keeps right on piling up his delinquency and adding to our already heavy burden. Our paper never fails to reach these estimable citizens. We believe that in all fairness their money should reach us.

FOR THESE WE ARE THANKFUL.

An editorial on Thanksgiving the day after the great American feast day need not be considered late, for thankfulness for our many blessings should actuate us the day or the week after Thanksgiving as well as on the great day itself.

Those of us who are sound in body and mind have much to be thankful for. All who are today making a comfortable living in spite of the reign of high costs should be thankful indeed, nor should they be niggardly in passing on to less fortunate ones the comforts that are theirs. Those who are blessed and happy in their families and their friends are among the richly endowed of earth, and thankfulness in unstinted measure should be theirs.

One year ago the people of earth were offering prayers of thanksgiving that the insanity of blood and destruction that had gripped the world for four mad years had reached and passed its crisis, and at this happy season, a year later, we should feel more than ever thankful that the hideous nightmare of murder and ruin is still further behind us, that practically all of this country's young manhood who passed through the holocaust alive are restored to their homes, and that the war-weary world is slowly but surely settling back to its pursuits of peace.

ONE MONTH LONGER.

Three weeks ago the announcement was made in this column that December 1st the subscription price of The Enterprise would raise from $2 a year to $2.50. This was explained at the time and has been dwelt upon since as being made necessary by the great increase in the cost of everything that went into the publishing of a newspaper. While the cost of The Enterprise to its subscribers had remained the same for many years, the cost of paper, ink, metals, and other things used in producing a paper had risen from 100 to 200 per cent. Since that announcement was made many of our subscribers have favored us with their renewals and not once have we heard a complaint at our proposed raise in price. But several of our most loyal friends and supporters have urged that we hold the $2 rate open till the first of the year. Many people date all their subscriptions to newspapers and magazines from January 1st, and a number have stated that they wish to renew at that time. Taking this into consideration and because this paper strives to be accommodating, it has been decided to retain the $2 rate for new subscribers or renewals for one month longer. January 1st and thereafter the price of The Enterprise will positively be $2.50 a year or $4.50 for two years.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

Under this heading The Enterprise will publish, from week to week, a series of excellent recipes written especially for this paper by a woman who has had a university training in domestic science and a wide experience in cooking in her own home. Every recipe has been thoroughly tested and will be found economical and palatable.

Fish, as is well known, is a substitute for meat, since it contains a large percentage of protein. It is valuable in the dietary for supplying protein and giving variety, and in season is one of the cheaper foods.

Fish in general is divided into two classes, light and dark. The dark fish, such as salmon, barracuda, etc., are those having fat distributed through the body. The light or lean fish, such as halibut, cod, etc., have the fat stored in the liver. These are, therefore, easier to digest than dark fish and are better for children or invalids.

Since fish deteriorate quickly, one should be careful to select fresh fish. Fresh fish have eyes not sunken, the scales do not come off easily, and the flesh feels firm to the touch.

Fish may be boiled, baked, fried, or sautéed. If boiled it is well to wrap it in cheesecloth and add a small amount of vinegar to the water (two tablespoons to three quarts of water) to help it retain its shape. If boiled some of the goodness is lost in the water.

Baking fish is one of the best methods of cooking it, since the juices and food elements are retained and it is more easily digested than fried fish.

Baked Fish

1. Select a medium-sized fish.
2. Clean thoroughly, washing inside and out.
3. Dry and fill with dressing.
4. Sew up with coarse thread and needle.
5. Skewer into the shape of the letter S. The head may be left on if desired.
6. Gash sides two or three times and fill with slices of salt pork.
7. Lay a slice of salt pork in the bottom of the baking pan and place fish on it. Dredge with flour.
8. Put into a hot oven and season, then reduce heat and bake in a moderate oven until done. Allow one hour for a three-pound fish. Baste about every ten minutes.
9. Remove to a platter, garnish with slices of lemon and parsley and serve hot.

Fish Stuffing

- 1 cup crumbs.
- ¼ cup melted fat.
- ¼ teaspoon salt.
- Pepper.
- A few drops of onion juice or 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion.
- 1 teaspoon chopped parsley.
- 1 teaspoon chopped pickles.
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice.
- 1 teaspoon chopped capers.
- Mix ingredients in order given.
- A delicious fish chowder may be made from a small amount of leftover fish.

Fish Chowder

- Slice on small onion and brown in three tablespoons fat.
- Add to above layers of sliced potatoes and the leftover fish.
- Add enough water to prevent burning and cook slowly about two hours.
- At the last some milk may be added if desired.
- Season with salt and pepper.

Drawn Butter Sauce

- 1-3 cup butter.
- 3 tablespoons flour.
- 1½ cup hot water.
- ½ teaspoon salt.
- Pepper.
- 1. Melt half the butter, but do not brown.
- 2. Stir in all the flour and add the water slowly.
- 3. Boil five minutes.
- 4. Add remaining butter.
- 5. Serve hot.

Escalloped Fish

- 2 cups leftover fish.
- 1 cup thin white sauce.
- Buttered crumbs.
- 1. Butter a baking dish and line with crumbs.
- 2. Add a layer of flaked fish, using half, and cover with half the sauce.
- 3. Cover with a layer of crumbs.

Economy Corner

The business woman must usually be her own beauty doctor, and she need not regret this if she gives herself fifteen minutes time at the end of each day, just before retiring. The hands, as well as the face and scalp, must have systematic attention.

Many girls who do office work, or sell goods over a counter, injure their hands unnecessarily by not washing them often, for much damage is done the nails and skin by permitting an accumulation of dirt to remain in the pores for several hours.

When cleansing hands so stained, soap and water should not be the first application, for nothing but a soft grease will be effective.

The finger tips require several extra strokes. Rinsing must be thorough. Drying finishes the cleaning, but is not the simple process that many persons think, and in the manner of doing it lies half the secret of having pretty nails. Each finger must be taken separately, the towel rubbed down the sides, back and front, beginning at the top.

The common mistake is to begin at the finger base and rub up, which simply trains the cuticle down over the nails and thickens the tips. Every nail must be wiped individually, commencing at the top and pressing gently down to the crescent at the base of the nail.

File the Finger Nails.

To keep the nails in good condition, always file them, never use the scissors to cut. Cleanse under the nails with equal parts of lemon juice and water. Use an orange-wood stick; also keep the cuticle around the nails smooth. Polish the nails whenever necessary.

Nails that break easily must be given a course of olive oil. It should be rubbed into the finger tips each night. Massage well and occasionally give the fingers a bath in hot olive oil.

If it is not convenient to use the oil, vaseline is a good substitute. Whenever doing rough work the fingers should be protected with gloves. If it is not comfortable to wear them over the whole hand, fingers can be cut from old gloves.

Polish for Nails.

An inexpensive and harmless nail polish is made by thoroughly mixing together a half ounce of talcum powder, a half ounce of powdered starch, a half ounce of pulverized boric acid and 15 drops of tincture of carmine. Do not rub the nails until the sensitive flesh beneath burns, as this causes them to become dry and brittle.

CATTLE AND BABIES.

Horse and cattle breeders owning "blooded" stock do not fail to have their animals "registered." It adds to their value and is therefore regarded as highly desirable.

Contrasting this attitude with that of careless physicians and parents, the public health service gives the following reasons why baby's birth should be registered:

- First—To establish identity.
- Second—To prove nationality.
- Third—To prove legitimacy.
- Fourth—To show when the child has the right to enter school.
- Fifth—To show when the child has the right to seek employment under the child labor law.
- Sixth—To establish the right of inheritance to property.
- Seventh—To establish liability to military duty, as well as exemption therefrom.
- Eighth—To establish the right to vote.
- Ninth—To qualify to hold title to, and to buy or sell real estate.
- Tenth—To establish the right to hold public office.
- Eleventh—To prove the age at which the marriage contract may be entered into.
- Twelfth—To make possible statistical studies of health conditions.

4. Add another layer of fish, sauce and crumbs, making the last layer of crumbs quite thick.

5. Bake in a moderate oven until crumbs are brown and the fish is heated through.

[The writer of these recipes will be glad to answer in this department questions with reference to cooking or dietetics. Address your inquiries to Cooking Editor, The Enterprise.]

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS EXCELLENT "Y" PROGRAM

A large and appreciative audience attended the entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night in the "Y" club rooms. An excellent program was presented and the encores demanded by the audience evidenced its appreciation. Two local boys appeared on the stage, Alpheus McGovern, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. McGovern, rendering a whistling solo in splendid style, his notes being remarkably clear, and Alexis James giving a piano solo that pleased his audience very much. Both boys took their parts without any display of nervousness, and many favorable comments were to be heard in the audience on their numbers.

The California Trio, consisting of Flora Hubbard, Laura Cotton, and Miss Rauhaute, all of San Francisco, gave their usual excellent program of musical numbers, the instruments being the piano, violin, and cornet.

During the evening "Y" Secretary David L. Smith announced that on the evening of December 11th an entertainment would be given at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, all numbers to be given by home talent.

THE GIFT OF GIFTS!

What will you send your son, daughter, or other relative who is away from home this Christmas?

The problem is not a difficult one. Nothing will give them more lasting pleasure than a year's subscription to The Enterprise. It would be to them a weekly letter from home and a constant reminder of your thoughtfulness.

Keep the home fires burning in their memories. You furnish the $2. The Enterprise will furnish the fuel.

Send in your subscription at once so they will get the paper by Christmas Day. Also you will save 50 cents by subscribing before December 1st. If you wish, we will start the subscription just before Christmas.

Our returned soldiers are naively remarking that when the next war breaks out the proper thing will be to send the fellows who remained at home this time.

The first census of the United States was taken in 1790, during the administration of George Washington. It related solely to population.

A GREATER THANKSGIVING

The occurrence of both Armistice Day and Thanksgiving makes November a month of genuine gratitude. Into the time-honored and more or less perfunctory method of celebrating the latter, the former day instills a renewed spirit of thankfulness.

The year of which the Armistice Anniversary marks the close, has been one which, despite the unsettled conditions of business generally, was filled with boundless possibilities for a radiant future to the man who possessed the vision and forethought to look ahead.

You who have builded consistently this past twelve months need have no fear for the future. Success is now merely a matter of continuing the same policy.

Our Service not only strengthens the foundation; it is equally valuable in maintaining the soundness and integrity of the completed structure. CARRY ON!

THE ELECTRIC IDEA IN BUILDING

Mr. Builder, is your new home any improvement over Caesar's? In beauty of architecture and durability—probably not.

But modern inventions have given you comforts and conveniences that the Romans never even dreamed of.

The greatest of all these is electricity that gives light, beauty, comfort, time and does away with unnecessary labor.

No matter what kind of a new home or building you are planning, first of all discuss with your architect or electrical engineer the comforts and conveniences you can insure for the future by providing sufficient wiring and proper outlets at the time of building.

Baseboard and wall outlets, carefully placed by experienced home planners, provide much comfort and service for labor-saving electrical appliances.

Construction by the city of San Bruno of a grade crossing over the tracks of the Southern Pacific and the United Railroads has been authorized by the railroad commission. The crossing is to be built at a point 370 feet westerly from Euclid avenue, and will connect the north and south ends of Huntington avenue. It is designed for the convenience of the residents living within the triangle formed by the Bay Shore cut-off, Valencia branch and the "Y" track connecting the two. The crossing will provide a safer and more direct route into the business portion of San Bruno than that now traveled.

The sixth decennial census, taken in 1840, was the first one to cover agricultural statistics, now one of the most important parts of the entire census.

BANK OFFICIAL TAKES BRIDE IN SAN MATEO

A war-time romance culminated Monday in San Mateo when Mrs. Fae Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harden Hatch of San Mateo Park, became the bride of Philip B. Lockwood, assistant cashier of the California Bank of San Bruno. The ceremony was performed at noon at the home of the bride's parents, 421 Crescent avenue, only immediate relatives being present. The Rev. R. H. Baldwin of the First Congregational Church of San Mateo officiated. It was a very quiet ceremony, owing to the ill health of Mr. Lockwood's mother, who lives in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood first met when Lockwood, then a first lieutenant in the army, was stationed at Camp Dodge with the 352d Infantry. Mr. and Mrs. Hatch and their daughter lived at that time in Des Moines, Iowa. Later they came to San Mateo to make their home, and upon Mr. Lockwood's discharge from the service he came west also, later becoming associated with Mr. Hatch and C. S. Cray in the establishment of the bank in this place.

Upon their return from a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch.

WILLIAM WEDELL APPOINTED MARSHAL

At the regular meeting of the trustees Wednesday evening, William Wedell of Belle Air Park, recently returned from service in Uncle Sam's army, was chosen out of four applicants for the office of city marshal. The other applicants were G. Wisniskie, J. Dunn and Mr. Roy, the last named from Burlingame.

ULTRA-THOUGHTFULNESS.

A young soldier while engaged in the desperate fight at Cantigny was found by some of his American pals at the conclusion of a particularly desperate fight squatting in the middle of a piece of grass-covered ground. He had a little pile of hand grenades at his side and there were several enemy dead on the outskirts of the little green oasis. He had been fighting like a demon, single-handed. "What's the idea?" asked the sergeant, running up. "Why stay here—it's all over?" "See this grass?" was the answer, pointing to a lush patch that had been put to seed by French peasants before their retreat in the face of falling shells. "I'm keeping it for a cow back on the lines that belongs to a family I'm billeted with. It's the only pasture in forty miles."

The Department of Agriculture assisted the Census Bureau in preparing the list of questions to be asked of every farmer at the coming census.

STEELWORKERS SCORE GREAT SUCCESS AT THANKSGIVING BALL

The Thanksgiving ball given by the steelworkers at Fraternal Hall Wednesday was a great success, judged from any angle. In spite of the cold wind a large crowd was in attendance and the many concessions did a rushing business, many of the booths being entirely sold out. The "Shanghai Court" proved to be one of the most popular features of the evening. Four officers were kept busy arresting prisoners and haling them into court. Among those who felt the heavy arm of the law was Policeman Henry McGraw, who was arrested as a suspicious character and by "Judge" Steve Nyland was sentenced to pay a fine of $50. This sentence was suspended and the culprit put on probation for six months. Some of the others did not get off so lightly, Judge Nyland himself being arrested and sentenced to buy concession tickets for the small boys and girls present. About 100 persons in all paid fines of from 50 cents to $1, the prisoner being forced in each case to pay his fine in concession tickets. Chris Peterson acted as prosecuting attorney. During the evening forty-seven turkeys were raffled.

BROKEN POWER LINE FIRES CAR EQUIPMENT PLANT

The local fire department had a run to the Pacific Car and Equipment plant in this city about 2 o'clock Thursday morning. A wire from the Sierra and San Francisco Power Company's line broke in the wind-storm and fell near the car company's plant, setting fire to the grass and to the car shop. Considerable damage was done to the car plant. Much credit is due the fire department for the promptness with which they turned out in spite of the hour, being on the ground within a very few minutes after the alarm was sounded.

DEPARTMENT CALLED TO FIRE AT RESERVOIRS

The fire department had a run to a fire at the city reservoirs on the hill last Friday afternoon. The fire was in grass and weeds and for a while threatened the roof of the tanks, but was extinguished without damage.

Let The Enterprise print your Christmas cards.

"What's the matter with the American dollar?" inquires an anxious critic. Nothing, nothing at all. A dollar is a dollar, and is worth a hundred cents—no more, and no less. But inflated prices have made its purchasing power only about one-half what it was a few years ago. Swat the price booster, and the dollar will perk up again.

The constitution of the United States requires that a census of the United States be taken every ten years. It is by this means that the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives is made as to states.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS TREE

The Fraternal Brotherhood has taken on more activity lately than it has since it was first instituted here. This is due no doubt to its new certificates that are being issued to the juvenile department that has been added to the society. Fifteen new members were added to the lodge this month and a large class is expected next meeting. The lodge has planned an entertainment and Christmas tree for December 19th for the membership and their families. Arrangements have been made for every one to receive a present.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD MEETING ON THURSDAY

The Woman's Club will meet Thursday, December 4, 1919, at 2 p. m., in the Y. M. C. A. hall. A short business meeting will be followed by a talk on Americanization by Mrs. C. H. Godfrey of Burlingame. There will also be a musical program by local artists. A great deal of interest and enthusiasm was shown at the last club meeting, which was the first regular meeting of the club year. It is the plan of the program committee to present at each meeting some special feature which will prove entertaining.

TOWN OF COLMA WILL HAVE NEW BANK SOON

A group of Colma men, headed by George Lagomarsino, wealthy vegetable grower, have announced their intention of establishing a bank at Colma, and it is said the necessary money has already been subscribed. A building is to be erected for the new bank on the lot at San Pedro avenue and Market street in Colma, where the Belli hay and grain barn formerly stood. The barn has been moved away and preparations are being made to start work on the building.

BOY SCOUTS HIKE TO SALADA BEACH

A number of the members of the local Boy Scouts troop went on a hike last Saturday in charge of Scoutmaster Rev. Daniel Stevens. The party took their lunches and laid their course over the hills to the northwest. The start was made at 8 o'clock in the morning, the return being made at about 5 in the afternoon. About twenty miles was covered.

FORSTER-STEWART CASE TRANSFERRED TO DALY CITY

Both sides in the case of Poundmaster Frank Stewart of San Bruno, charged with battery by Thomas Forster of the same place, have asked that the case be transferred from Judge W. J. Smith's court in this city to the court of Judge E. C. Johnson of Daly City. Both parties in the case have agreed to a hearing without attorneys on either side.
